Yielding to the Passions.

The Christian Index remarks upon and illustrates this subject as follows: Had we not infinitely better live down a slander, or make back the little loss of a thief, than to carry the blood of the soul and body of a fellow man apon our conscience the balance of our lives? We can restore our own losses of whetever kind but if we stain our lives of the Womb as a Blood Purifier it is un of whatever kind, but if we stain our ing of the Womb. As a Blood Purifier it is un hand in the blood of the most aband- equaled, for it cures the organs that make the onedly wicked, we take that which we never can restore, and which God is put up in the LARGEST SIZED BOTTLE of any medicine upon the market, and is sold by Druggists and all dealers at $1.25 per bottle.

A worthy minister of the gospel, one who stood as fair as any man in the country, had a very fine horse stolen. He followed the thief, and came up with him and ordered him to stop. The guilty man put spurs to the horse and galloped off as fast as he could. The pursurer followed, drew his gun and fired at the man—the ball took fatal effect, and the poor wretch fell dead. Everybody commended the deed but himself. He never recovered from the shock it gave his conscience, for he resigned all his churches and never thereafter attempted to preach at least as a pastor. In his old age he would occasionally conduct public service in the absence of any other minister. While he retained the confidence of all who knew him to his dying day, he never was the same man after the unfortunate occurrence. Perhaps the laws of God, and cera man in taking the life of another when his own is imperilled as the CIGARS, TOBACCO, tainly the laws of the country, justify last resort of self defense. But certainly nothing short of this can be defended upon any principle of jurisprudence or morality—human or divine.

la, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sus-taining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any discase which arises from impurity of the blood need despoir who will give Aven's Sarsaparilla a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numer-ous low-priced mixtures, of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AVER'S SARSAPARILLA is a medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has wan the manalified confiyears, and has won the unqualified confi-dence of millions whom it has benefited.
